

Lurra - Coming Soon

Lurra

Lurra opens 2nd September

We are very excited to announce our new restaurant Lurra will be open for bookings from the 2nd September!

Reservations can be made on bookings@lurra.co.uk or by visiting here.

Situated just across the road from Donostia, Lurra is inspired by the charcoal and wood grills, or “Erretegias”, found throughout the Basque country. Lurra will focus on sharing plates, including the restaurant’s signature whole grilled turbot cooked over wood in a fish basket and Galician Blonde rib eye steaks.

Donostia was one of the first restaurants to introduce Basque Vaca Vieja (meaning old cow) and Galician Rubia Gallega rib eye steaks to the London food scene, through our own import business Txuleta. These unique styles of steak will permanently feature as signatures on the menu at Lurra.

The design reflects the restaurant’s approach of using natural, well-sourced materials, with oak flooring, a marble topped bar and the wall of the staircase leading to the first floor, clad with wood from old wine barrels. At the rear of the restaurant we even have a private courtyard with space for twenty diners. The first floor dining room is available for private hire or as a function space.

Lurra will be open Monday to Saturday for dinner and Tuesday to Sunday for lunch. A full brunch menu for Saturdays and Sundays will launch later in the year.

We look forward to seeing you at Lurra in September!
